The IMT School for Advanced Studies Lucca (www.imtlucca.it), one of the five Schools of Excellence in Italy, is collecting expressions of interest for Tenure-Track faculty positions from exceptional candidates of all ranks in the following areas:

· Economics, Management and Data Science
· Computer Science and Systems Engineering
· Neurosciences
· Cultural Heritage

While these are the main areas of interest of the School, please keep in mind that candidates from areas beyond those listed above, yet still aligned with the mission of the IMT School, are also welcome to submit an expression of interest.

The IMT School is a public graduate school and research institute that focuses on the analysis of economic, social, biological and technological systems. The School has been under the direction of Prof. Pietro Pietrini since November of 2015. Since the IMT School’s institution by ministerial decree of November 18th 2005, the School has distinguished itself thanks to the quality and innovativeness of its research and doctoral program and its interdisciplinary nature, characterized by the complementarity and discourse between methodologies drawn from economics, engineering, computer science, neuroscience and behavioral psychology, physics, applied mathematics, statistics, history and sciences of cultural heritage.

The fusion between art and technology is also reflected in the School state-of-the-art campus, located principally in the newly restored San Francesco Complex. The entire campus is found within the historic city center of Lucca, which is completely surrounded by a fully-intact Renaissance-era walls. The campus includes spaces for research and laboratories, courses, and living and recreation. The campus is completed by the IMT Library, which offers a plethora of resources and offers additional working and research areas for the IMT community, and the city of Lucca in general.

The deadline for submitting expressions of interest is July 13th, 2016 at 11.59 p.m. The link to both the full description of the profiles and the online application form is: http://www.imtlucca.it/school/job-opportunities/academic/international-scouting.
