Scientific Cooperation Italy-USA: Examples and Instruments

24-25 September, Boston

The Italian Trade Commission invites you to this international training event that will highlight the collaboration opportunities between Italy and the US in the fields of nanotechnology and biotechnology. The training session topics aim to address an audience of researchers and scientists from the public and private sectors. Discussion topics will range from science, to intellectual property, case studies on international cooperation opportunities, and potential funding (Italian, European, International) applicable for cooperation projects.

25th September - Cambridge Innovation Center 14th Floor, One Broadway Cambridge, MA
8:30 - 8:45 Registration, Breakfast and Welcoming Remarks
10:15 am - 1:30 pm One-to-One Sessions

One-to-One consultative meetings will be scheduled between interested event participants and the consultants from INNOVA S.p.A and Innova Consulting Group, Inc.

Photo ID Required for Building Security Checking